LICENSING AUTHORITY

LICENSING ACT 2003

PERSONAL LICENCE

HOW TO COMPLY WITH THE LICENSING ACT 2003

LICENSING ACT 2003 - WHAT HAS IT GOT TO DO WITH ME?

Personal Licences are granted to individuals by Local Councils (also known as the Licensing Authorities).

HOW DOES THE LAW AFFECT ME?

The law provides a system for the granting of Personal Licences to individuals to sell, or to authorise the sale of alcohol. A Personal Licence is separate from the licence to be used for the sale or supply of alcohol (the Premises Licence).

The law therefore introduced “split licensing” with a Personal Licence which is portable for the Licensee, and a separate Premises Licence which will be granted for the venue that sells / supplies alcohol.

WHY WOULD I WANT A PERSONAL LICENCE?

A Personal Licence only allows the holder to sell alcohol from establishments with a Premises Licence that authorises the sale of alcohol.

An individual is permitted to only hold one Personal Licence at a time, but it will be possible for the holder of a Personal Licence to be named as the Designated Premises Supervisor on a Premises Licence.

More than one individual at licensed premises may hold a Personal Licence, but it will not be necessary for all staff who actually serve alcohol to hold a Personal Licence.

TO WHOM DO I APPLY FOR A PERSONAL LICENCE?

When applying for a Personal Licence, you must apply to the Licensing Authority within which you live. This may not be the same Council as the one that covers the area in which you work.

DO I NEED ANY QUALIFICATIONS BEFORE I APPLY FOR A PERSONAL LICENCE?

You will need to have acquired one of the following recognised qualifications in order to then apply for the Personal Licence itself:

- BIAB Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- CIEH Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- HABC Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- IQ Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- LASER Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- NCFE Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- Pearson Education Ltd Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- SQA Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders
- Training Qualifications UK Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders

Please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/accredited-personal-licence-qualification-providers/accredited-personal-licence-qualification-providers> where you will find the contact details of the training providers of the above qualifications, who can inform you of the courses, costs and availability in your area.
