

Self-Assessment Form – Housing Ombudsman’s Complaint Handling Code

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and discussed at the landlord’s governing body annually. Evidence should be included to support all statements with additional commentary as necessary.

Explanations must also be provided where a mandatory ‘must’ requirement is not met to set out the rationale for the alternative approach adopted and why this delivers a better outcome.

	considered, and these circumstances should be fair and reasonable to residents.
1.9	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, a detailed explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman.	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers

Best practice ‘should be’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
1.4	Landlords should recognise the difference between a service request, where a resident may be unhappy with a situation that they wish to have rectified, and a complaint about the service they have/have not received.	Yes	Confirmed/defined in policy and procedure.
1.5	Survey feedback may not necessarily need to be treated as a complaint, though, where possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue their dissatisfaction as a complaint if they wish to.	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.

Section 2 – Accessibility and awarenessMandatory ‘must’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
2.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which residents can make a complaint such as in person, over the telephone, in writing, by email and digitally. While the Ombudsman recognises that it may not be feasible for a landlord to use all of the potential channels, there must be more than one route of access into the complaints system.	Yes	Number of platforms detailed in the policy
2.3	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the number of stages involved, what will happen at each stage and the timeframes for responding.	Yes	Complaints policy is currently published on the authority’s website and can be provided to tenants upon request.
2.4	Landlord websites, if they exist, must include information on how to raise a complaint. The complaints policy and process must be easy to find on the website	Yes	Process included in website. Online form also provided to assist with submitting complaint.

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
2.5	Landlords must comply with the Equality Act 2010 and may need to adapt normal policies, procedures, or processes to accommodate an individual’s needs. Landlords must satisfy themselves that their policy sets out how they will respond to reasonable adjustments requests in line with the Equality Act and that complaints handlers have had appropriate training to deal with such requests.	Yes	Details of how to seek assistance making a complaint contained within policy and link to equalities page, including reasonable adjustments page. Procedural guidance is available for officers in this area. Equality training is mandatory for all officers
2.6	Landlords must publicise the complaints policy and process, the Complaint Handling Code and the Housing Ombudsman Scheme in leaflets, posters, newsletters, online and as part of regular correspondence with residents.	Yes	Complaint handling code/complaints process advertised in tenant magazine, sent to all tenants and on website. Housing Ombudsman Service details are included in all complaint related letter templates.
2.7	Landlords must provide residents with contact information for the Ombudsman as part of its regular correspondence with residents.	Yes	Ombudsman details included in relevant correspondence with tenants/leaseholders.
2.8	Landlords must provide early advice to residents regarding their right to access the Housing Ombudsman Service throughout their complaint, not only when the landlord’s complaints process is exhausted.	Yes	Procedure provides guidance to officers to include complainant’s right to access Housing Ombudsman at all stages of complaint, including wording to reflect in standard letter templates.

Best practice ‘should’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
2.2	Where a landlord has set up channels to communicate with its residents via social media, then it should expect to receive complaints via those channels. Policies should contain details of the steps that will be taken when a complaint is received via social media and how confidentiality and privacy will be maintained.	Yes	Social media channels are monitored for complaints, where identified, these are forwarded to relevant team and handled in line with complaints policy/procedure.

Section 3 – Complaint handling personnelMandatory ‘must’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
3.1	Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling to ensure complaints receive the necessary attention, and that these are reported to the governing body. This Code will refer to that person or team as the “complaints officer”.	Yes	Consumer Standards Lead Officer is lead officer for Housing Complaints. Complaint levels are reported on a monthly basis and quarterly breakdown/performance reports produced providing detailed complaint information.
3.2	...the complaint handler appointed must have appropriate complaint handling skills and no conflicts of interest.	Yes	Complaint handlers are trained/experienced officers. Where conflicts are identified, alternative complaint handlers are allocated.

Best practice ‘should’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
3.3	Complaint handlers should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be able to act sensitively and fairly • be trained to handle complaints and deal with distressed and upset residents • have access to staff at all levels to facilitate quick resolution of complaints • have the authority and autonomy to act to resolve disputes quickly and fairly. 	Yes	Complaint handlers are experienced and skilled officers. Expectations for approach are detailed in procedure.

Section 4 – Complaint handling principles

Mandatory ‘must’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
4.1	Any decision to try and resolve a concern must be taken in agreement with the resident and a landlord’s audit trail/records should be able to demonstrate this. Landlords must ensure that efforts to resolve a resident’s concerns do not obstruct access to the complaints procedure or result in any unreasonable delay. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as ‘stage 0’ or ‘pre-complaint stage’) as this causes unnecessary confusion for residents. When a complaint is made, it must be acknowledged and logged at stage one of the complaints procedure within five days of receipt.	Yes	Complainants have access to the complaint process at all stages of process and actions to resolve are taken in agreement with them. All complaints are logged and acknowledged.
4.2	Within the complaint acknowledgement, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification and the full definition agreed between both parties.	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.
4.6	A complaint investigation must be conducted in an impartial manner.	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
4.7	The complaint handler must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • deal with complaints on their merits • act independently and have an open mind • take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest • consider all information and evidence carefully • keep the complaint confidential as far as possible, with information only disclosed if necessary to properly investigate the matter. 	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.
4.11	Landlords must adhere to any reasonable arrangements agreed with residents in terms of frequency and method of communication	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.
4.12	The resident, and if applicable any staff member who is the subject of the complaint, must also be given a fair chance to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • set out their position • comment on any adverse findings before a final decision is made. 	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.

4.13	A landlord must include in its complaints policy its timescales for a resident to request escalation of a complaint	Yes	Reflected in policy.
4.14	A landlord must not unreasonably refuse to escalate a complaint through all stages of the complaints procedure and must have clear and valid reasons for taking that course of action. Reasons for declining to escalate a complaint must be clearly set out in a landlord’s complaints policy and must be the same as the reasons for not accepting a complaint.	Yes	Reflected in policy.
4.15	A full record must be kept of the complaint, any review and the outcomes at each stage. This must include the original complaint and the date received, all correspondence with the resident, correspondence with other parties and any reports or surveys prepared.	Yes	Centralised log for managing complaints and outcomes. Complaint documents stored in central location by Complaints Officer.
4.18	Landlords must have policies and procedures in place for managing unacceptable behaviour from residents and/or their representatives when pursuing a complaint	Yes	Unreasonable or unreasonably persistent complaints policy in place and available on website/hard copy upon request.

Best practice ‘should’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
4.3	Landlords should manage residents’ expectations from the outset, being clear where a desired outcome is unreasonable or unrealistic	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.
4.4	A complaint should be resolved at the earliest possible opportunity, having assessed what evidence is needed to fully consider the issues, what outcome would resolve the matter for the resident and whether there are any urgent actions required.	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.
4.5	Landlords should give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord where this is reasonable	Yes	Included within the policy and procedure.
4.8	Where a key issue of a complaint relates to the parties’ legal obligations landlords should clearly set out their understanding of the obligations of both parties.	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.
4.9	Communication with the resident should not generally identify individual members of staff or contractors.	Yes	Approach confirmed in procedural guidance to officers.
